

VIRGINIANA FILE

PWC - Historic Sites
(McCormick House Haymarket)

Prince William Public Library
Manassas, Va.

Va - Prince Wm / Haymarket

10 - A - The Journal Messenger, Manassas, Va., June 3, 1971

THE TOWN OF HAYMARKET'S oldest building, McCormick House, which survived the fire of 1862, will be among sites open on the historic walking tour during Haymarket Day Saturday, June 5. The day's activities will begin at 9 a.m. with a horse show and other events beginning at 10 a.m. will include an antique show and sale, Teen Challenge booth, musical entertainment, antique and racing car exhibits, arts and crafts demonstrations, baby sitting, a luncheon, carnival-type rides and games, numerous displays, several sales booths and a flower show starting at 3 p.m. Most events will continue until around 6 p.m. (JM Photo by Kathi DeLay)

Stockholders Will Vote on Merger

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Commonwealth Telephone Company, Inc. will be held on June 10, 1971, at 10:00 a.m. in the Commonwealth Telephone Company, Inc. building, 1000 North 1st Street, Arlington, Virginia. The purpose of the meeting is to consider and vote upon the proposed merger of the Commonwealth Telephone Company, Inc. with the Commonwealth Telephone Company, Inc. The merger is being proposed by a vote of the board of directors of the Commonwealth Telephone Company, Inc. The merger will result in the formation of a new company, the Commonwealth Telephone Company, Inc. The merger is being proposed by a vote of the board of directors of the Commonwealth Telephone Company, Inc. The merger will result in the formation of a new company, the Commonwealth Telephone Company, Inc.

OHS Ba

A grand climax to many area Memorial observances and outdoor activities, some curtailed or postponed because of weather over the holiday week was the inspiring

Recreation Prove t

The Prince William and Recreation Department reported this week that 94,000 people participated in their Fall-Winter program last year.

In his annual report to the Board of Supervisors Ray Vaden, Director, said that 75 different programs were used in the Marumscott City Centers.

Teenagers accounted for the largest class of participants to use the centers, with 2,319 attending at Marumscott Dale City. Over

