

VIRGINIANA FILE
Historic Sites
(Park Gate)

Prince William Public Library
Manassas, Va.

Weems-Botts Museum
Collection

Ten sites earmarked for protection

POTOMAC NEWS
11/25/70 C-1

PARK GATE. A yellow frame house built around 1750 and once owned by the niece of George Washington. It is said that the general at one time "drank tea" there. The location of the rambling house is just outside Nokesville, past the Bernisville District High School on Park Gate Road. This house is now up for sale.

