

Artist Rendition of the William Bennett Plantation—circa 1725

The earliest European settlement in what is now Prince William Forest Park was founded by William and Margaret Bennett. They settled near the South Fork Quantico Creek sometime in 1731. The frontier couple trapped, farmed and traded with local native peoples.

© VisComm 888.511.0900 Printed in USA

Historical items are part of what make our national parks special, please do not disturb items you may find.

(703) 221-7181

www.nps.gov/prwi

6 34280 00992 9

THIS AREA FOR OFFICIAL POSTAL USE

PRINCE WILLIAM

FOREST PARK • VIRGINIA

