Ben Leonard accessory bldg. not a slave qtr.

Edward Corters little bldg was lived in first long before 1835 came left + came back. at least 35 yrs. before

MR JONES — one of the big owners in Weaver had told Mr. Garner that mansion house + immediate grounds would be given to the county.

Was always the intention of Mr. Jones that house + grounds to go to the county.

Jones has died — Chude Sharp

was present when Jones + Garner
had the conversation.

See Martin R. West — boss of Weaver Bros.

v. nice man. & very moral man.

Sharp recommends county fathers have a discussion with him.

James Miller — Exec. Officer of Weaver Bros.

Probably one of the most historical buildings in the county. Will not find Prob. one of the most unique + signif buildings

"I would be shocked if they let that be destroyed."

It was never intended that that piece of ground ever be used for anything but a museum + historic site.
Fence was ~~between~~ ^{immed. behind the} house. UNIT OF 4

Surveyors have gotten screwed up.

Never intended that that little building be separated from the manor house.
Brick bldg + long bldg.

Manor house, little house + two well houses — Smoke houses

See stone in that well.

The only bldg
that holds a candle
to that one is Bel Air.
Rate. Bel Air.
